

QUESTION 25 OF 44: NOT ANSWERED

A NO CHANGE

It presents a conjunctive adverb that does not accurately depict the relationship between the preceding sentence and the sentence with the underlined word.

B however,

The conjunctive adverb "however" accurately communicates the contrast between an environment shaped by the presence of sea otters, described in the preceding sentence, and an environment shaped by the absence of sea otters, described in this sentence.

C hence,

It presents a conjunctive adverb that does not accurately depict the relationship between the preceding sentence and the sentence with the underlined word.

D likewise,

It presents a conjunctive adverb that does not accurately depict the relationship between the preceding sentence and the sentence with the underlined word.
