

QUESTION 1 OF 52: NOT ANSWERED

Which choice best summarizes the passage?

A

A character describes his dislike for his new job and considers the reasons why.

The narrator admits that his job is “irksome” and reflects on the reasons for his dislike. The narrator admits that his work is a “dry and tedious task” and that he has a poor relationship with his superior: “the antipathy which had sprung up between myself and my employer striking deeper root and spreading denser shade daily, excluded me from every glimpse of the sunshine of life.”

B

Two characters employed in the same office become increasingly competitive.

The narrator does not become increasingly competitive with his employer.

C

A young man regrets privately a choice that he defends publicly.

The narrator does not publicly defend his choice of occupation.

D

A new employee experiences optimism, then frustration, and finally despair.

The narrator does not exhibit optimism about his job.
