

QUESTION 38 OF 52: NOT ANSWERED

It can reasonably be inferred that “the strong-minded” (line 28) was a term generally intended to

- A praise women who fight for their long-denied rights.

Stanton does not suggest that people use the term “the strong-minded” as a compliment.

- B identify women who demonstrate intellectual skill.

Stanton does not suggest that people use the term “the strong-minded” as a compliment.

- C criticize women who enter male-dominated professions.

Stanton suggests that “the strong-minded” is a term used to criticize women who want to vote, not those who enter male-dominated professions.

- D condemn women who agitate for the vote for their sex.

Stanton argues that people use the term “the strong-minded” to refer to women who advocate for “the right to suffrage,” or the right to vote in elections. In this context, people use the term “the strong-minded” to criticize female suffragists, as they believe voting will make women too “masculine.”
