To make this paragraph most logical, sentence 5 should be placed

---

(A) where it is now.

It creates a paragraph with an inappropriate shift in verb tense and, therefore, an illogical sequence of information.

(B) before sentence 1.

It creates a paragraph with an inappropriate shift in verb tense and, therefore, an illogical sequence of information.

(C) after sentence 3.

It appropriately places sentence 5, which describes the places Repair Cafés can be found today, between a sentence that gives the first Repair Café's location and purpose and a statement about current customers and how they use Repair Cafés.

(D) after sentence 6.

It creates a paragraph with an inappropriate shift in verb tense and, therefore, an illogical sequence of information.